Migration affects all the world, including Europe. It's a key feature of our contemporary world, but it still remains one of the least understood phenomena.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

- ❑ understanding the theoretical framework of migration trends and new migration in Europe and its global effects
- ❑ exploring and understanding topic of violent extremism as a cause rather than a consequence of migration and influence of media
- ❑ enhancing youth workers' competences about the push and pull factors of migration and how to prevent negative effects of migration (such as marginalisation) in society

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

- ❑ to discover and deepen EU policies towards migration and local realities in participating countries, promoting European cooperation between youth organisations
- ❑ to draw up new initiatives in the field of migration and mobility for young people within the framework of the Erasmus+ Programme
- ❑ sharing best practices and innovation in youth work, related to international/local migration
